

THE COZY COFFIN

WELCOMES YOU

YOUR HOME IN THE HEREAFTER

OUR HISTORY

The Cozy Coffin first open its doors in 2019. We can proudly say that this establishment is made for alternative people, by alternative people. The founder, Shaye Chalifoux, was determined to make a safe haven for alternative people everywhere. Our goal is to create memories that will last a lifetime for every guest that stays here. There is not many gothic attractions in the United States, so we are here to host those in the gothic subculture. We also hope to educate those who are not in an alternative subculture that goths are not dangerous or violent. For too long, alternative people have faced negative stereotypes, but we are here to change that. We ensure that any person in any alternative subculture will be welcomed with open arms here. Although The Cozy Coffin does not have much of a history, we can guarantee that we will have a long future.

DRACULA'S DEN

This is the most luxurious bedroom in the entire bed and breakfast. Sleeping in this room will truly feel like you are back in 15th century Romania, the birthplace of Dracula himself. You can have this wonderful and spooky experience for just $300 a night. This is a one-room suite with a California King-size bed and a comfortable seating area. The entire suite is designed with comfort and the macabre in mind. Enjoy your stay in our 304 square foot room complete with all your bedroom needs. Unlike in the 15th century, this room comes with high speed wired and wireless internet and a 65 inch wall-mounted television for your entertainment.

MORTICIA'S LAIR

This room is for the more modern alternative people. This room is classy but still has a spooky vibe. The room comes with a queen-size bed, a small lounge area and a walk-in closet. The room also comes with blackout curtains to ensure the guest's privacy as well as stopping the sun's harmful rays. This classy yet spooky room could be yours for just $200 a night. Enjoy your stay in our 210 square foot room. The room comes with high speed wired and wireless internet and a 50 inch television for your entertainment.

DINING ROOM

This is where we all gather to enjoy meals and each other's company. Of course if a guest does not want to dine with the others then there is the option of dining in their own room. We try to make every guest feel comfortable and we take pride in the food we serve. It is important to know that any dietary restrictions or food allergies must be known prior to checking in so we can accommodate everyone's needs.

LIVING ROOM

This is the main area of socializing in the entire bed and breakfast. Here, we host game nights and movie nights, if the guests choose to participate. This room includes a full-size couch along with a loveseat and an oversized chair with an ottoman, so there is more than enough room for everyone to enjoy each other's company. Ample lighting is provided which makes it a nice spot in the house to enjoy a nice book.

BATHROOM

This is the area of the house where the guest can bathe and relax. The bathroom walls give off a modern feel but the curtains are more of a traditional gothic style. The restroom includes one toilet, one sink, one bathtub and one shower. Toiletries such as towels, one hairdryer, shampoo, conditioner, soap, feminine products, one hair straightener, and toothpaste are included so there's no worry if a guest forgets to pack something of their own.

KITCHEN

This is where all meals that are served are prepared. Breakfast, lunch and dinner will be made everyday for guests. Guests have the opportunity to store food that they have purchased in the refrigerator in the kitchen. If they do not want to do that, we do provide miniature refrigerators in every room. It is the guest's responsibility to let the hosts know of any existing food allergy or dietary restriction. It is also the guest's responsibility to tell the hosts if they have any plans to go out to eat so that the hosts can prepare meals for all who attend.

LOCAL ATTRACTIONS

The Winchester Mystery House is a mansion in San Jose, California that was once inhabited by Sarah Winchester. This mansion is known for its size, curiosities and lack of a master building plan. This mansion is said to be haunted by the spirits of those who died from a Winchester rifle, the rifle that Sarah's husband had designed.

She was told by psychics that if she built a house and never stopped building then the evil spirits would leave her alone. The house has 160 rooms, each room more peculiar than the last. There are one hour long tours of the mansion. Tickets for children (6-12) are $20 per child and tickets for adults (13+) are $39 per person.

The Museum of Death is a must-see if you are interested in serial killers, oddities, and death. The museum is located in Los Angeles and features a morbid assortment of serial killer letters, real autopsy photos, electric chairs, gruesome photos from actual murders and more! The museum was a home that was then converted into what it is today, so the hallways are quite narrow so there are no bags or purses allowed but they are safely stored at the front desk. Admission is $15 and you can stay as long as you please! Although there is no photographing allowed, you will leave with memories that will last a lifetime!

Haven't you ever wished that Halloween stores should be open for longer than one month? Well your wish has come true! There is a store open year-round in Burbank, California for all your Halloween needs! Halloween Town is your home for Halloween costumes, decorations, accessories and more! Their products range from Halloween decor to antique Ouija boards and everything in between. Halloween Town is a top Halloween and Horror destination in the Los Angeles area so be sure to stop by!

If you are looking to stay up all night and party with ghosts and goblins, then the Sinister Pointe's Spirit Lounge is just what you need! Come in and enjoy a spooky concoction cocktail and watch some classic horror movies. The lounge is filled with state of the art illusions and special effects, including a life-size replica of the possessed girl from "The Exorcist". The bar is located in Brea, California and is reservation only, so be sure to make a reservation and party like a creature of the night!
